

Wants To Buy Foxes For These Dogs To Chase.

Foxes seem to be in demand this year, for some reason yet to be explained. Another Shelby county man now appears and wants to buy one thousand of the animals, and is offering $1.50 each for sound and gray foxes. J. D. Stodghill, of Shelbyville, is the latest to advertise for foxes. Another Shelby county man advertised last week for one thousand and now Mr. Stodghill comes along with the same sort of proposition. Both men are raisers of fine fox hounds and probably want the foxes to sell in the East for chasing. Mr. Stodghill's pack of hounds is shown in the above picture.

Frankfort Soon To Have City Directory.

WILL BE BOOKS THAT CITIZENS CAN BE PROUD OF.

A representative of the Inter-State Directory Co., of Marion, Ind., which has had a corps of canvassers at work taking a complete and accurate house-to-house enumeration of Frankfort and Franklin County's residents, has returned to note changes of location and secure additional business with the end in view that this directory shall equal that of the best among the large number published by the company in seven contiguous States. The Winchester and Clark County Directory, just issued, shows a book of some three hundred pages, bound in heavy board covers with handsome set, and make up. The advertisements are up to date models of the printers' handiwork and reflect credit alike upon the company and the business and professional interests so largely represented.

ANNIVERSARY OF OLD FIRM.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the opening in Frankfort of the business of I. Davis. He has been it is probably the oldest establishment in Frankfort thirty-one years, and it is probably the oldest established business in Frankfort, operating under the same management. Mr. Davis contemplates making many changes in his business which will enable him to accommodate his patrons better. The business has been built up gradually by careful attention to details and is now one of the largest in Frankfort.

WILL BUILD HOMES

FOR WORKING MEN.

CAPITAL LUMBER CO. HAS NOVEL PLAN TO IMPROVE FRANKFORT.

The Capital Lumber and Manufacturing Company has a new plan on foot which will provide homes for many persons in Frankfort and enable a laboring man, or a man on a small salary to build and own a home. The company will build a home and allow payment on the installment plan, taking only a fair rate of interest to compensate them. In this way a man who has no capital but who can lay away a few dollars each month can save a home from the daily wages and at the end of a few years have a home of his own. The company has perfected the details for its scheme and expects to make announcement in a short time of its plans so that the men of Frankfort can learn exactly how it is to be done.

BOOKS FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY.

During the past five weeks the Woman's Club has received 205 books for the Frankfort Public Library. This makes a total of nearly seven hundred volumes that have been collected. It is hoped that during this month of May three hundred more books will be donated, so that at the Federation meeting in Paducah in early June the Frankfort Club may be able to report a total of one thousand volumes.

The books recently given include many excellent works of modern fiction, several volumes of poetry, the second volume of Watson's History of France, other works on French History, a history of the United States Navy, several good nature books and a number of good juvenile stories by Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mary Mapes Dodge, Annie Fellows Johnson and other favorite writers for children. Only one of Miss Alcott's has yet been received, but it is hoped that others will soon be donated.

DR. BRUNER ILL.

Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Secretary of State, is ill at his home in Louisville. He was in Louisville yesterday and was confined to his room and today will be unable to be out. It is understood that Dr. Bruner is seriously sick and may not be able to attend the Republican Convention next week.

Rev. M. B. Adams Will Remain In Frankfort.

DECIDES TO REFUSE CALL TO CHURCH AT JACKSON, TENN., CONGREGATION PLEADED.

The Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has finally decided not to accept the call to Jackson, Tenn. Dr. Adams gave the call careful consideration and finally decided that it would be best for him to stay in Frankfort. The members of his congregation are greatly pleased with this decision and feel that the church will be the better for his pastorate.

Dr. Adams is one of the most popular ministers in Frankfort, and is well known over the State on account of the prominent part he took in the fight for the County Unit Bill at the last session of the Legislature. He is an able minister and when there was talk of his leaving Frankfort there was a burst of protest from the members of his congregation. A mass meeting was held and almost every member of the church was present to urge Dr. Adams to stay in Frankfort. It was largely on account of this meeting that Dr. Adams decided to stay here. He believes that he can do more good here than he could elsewhere and he will continue in active charge of the church.

GOOD THINGS ADVERTISED.

Special attention is called to the new advertisements in this issue of the News. Brady Brothers are advertising the American Gentleman shoe for which they are sole agents. W. S. Farmer has some special good things for the coming week, and W. C. Lutkemeier is displaying a specially fine line of rugs, carpets and matings. It is not necessary to go to Louisville or Lexington for goods, if one reads the advertisements in this paper.
